

John W. Salmon is a Florida Supreme Court Certified Circuit Civil and Family Mediator who has mediated 8,000 plus cases over the past twenty-eight years. He is also approved as a Federal Mediator for the U.S. Southern District of Florida. A graduate of Pennsylvania State University, John received his Juris Doctor from the University of Florida in 1978 and his Master's in Business Administration from Florida International University in 1989. John has served as an Adjunct Professor in the College of Business at FIU where he taught Business Law in the School of Accounting and at the Florida International University College of Law teaching Alternative Dispute Resolution. John currently serves as Editor in Chief of the American Journal of Mediation.

John is a Past President of the Florida Academy of Professional Mediators, the organization responsible for representing and educating mediators statewide. A Diplomate member of the Academy, he received the Academy Award of Merit, the organization's highest achievement, in 2010. John is a Distinguished Fellow of the American College of Civil Trial Mediators and a member of the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals. He is a past Chair of both the ADR Committee of the Trial Lawyers Section of the Florida Bar and The Florida Bar's Grievance Mediation Committee.

As a full time neutral, Mr. Salmon is a Florida Supreme Court Qualified Arbitrator for circuit court matters. He is also a Windstorm Insurance Network Fellow and IAUA Umpire serving as a Neutral Umpire for insurance appraisals.

John is a natural mediator whose broad based educational, legal and business background make him a sought-after lecturer on mediation and negotiation to attorneys and dispute resolution professionals. As a Nidan, second degree black belt, in the Cuong Nhu Martial Arts Association, John often combines martial arts with his presentations on mediation and negotiation skills. His mediation specialties include first party claims, commercial disputes, personal injury cases, professional malpractice, banking disputes and general business matters.
