

Karen Evans, an attorney and the founder of Litigation Resolution, Inc., has spent twenty-five years working exclusively as a mediator and arbitrator. Ms. Evans specializes in employment, civil rights, disability and commercial law claims pending in federal court, state court, or pre-suit and arbitration. Ms. Evans serves as a panelist for the American Arbitration Association where she arbitrates employment, commercial, and construction disputes. At the request of a special master, Ms. Evans has served on three exclusive panels resolving national class action discrimination claims. Ms. Evans has delivered numerous continuing legal education and continuing mediation education seminars on civil mediation in the state and federal courts of Florida. Prior to becoming a full-time neutral, Ms. Evans spent ten years specializing in complex litigation with a Miami commercial litigation boutique practice.

A founding member of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Section of the Florida Bar, Ms. Evans previously served as the Chair of that Section and on the Executive Council. Ms. Evans currently serves on the Executive Council of the Labor and Employment Section of the Florida Bar, is a member of the Spellman-Hoeveler Chapter of the American Inns of Court, a charter member of the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals, a member of the South Florida Chapter of the Federal Bar Association, a member of Florida Association of Women Lawyers, and a member of the Dade County Bar Association.

Ms. Evans is a graduate of American University and University of Miami School of Law.