

Rodney G. Romano – 6/2019

Rodney Romano has been a full time Certified Circuit civil mediator since 2000 and along with his wife Lynnette, founded Matrix Mediation in 2006 to bring a next level of excellence and consistency to the mediation profession. He has conducted more than 24,000 hours/7000 cases of circuit civil mediations in all areas of civil law, covering the entire spectrum of complexity and value. He is a long standing member of the Mediator Qualifications and Discipline Review Board of the DRC (Florida Supreme Court) and is a Commissioner on the Palm Beach County Ethics Commission. Rodney is a former Board Certified Civil Trial Attorney. He served 4 terms as Mayor of the City of Lake Worth, Florida. He has experience as a Florida Licensed Nursing Home Administrator, a Florida Certified General Contractor, a licensed private pilot, and a certified Nitrox scuba diver. He is the author of Dispute Resolution Field Manual – Negotiating in the Trenches (release date September 2019). He has lectured and written regularly on issues of ADR and trial advocacy since 1986.

For a more detailed resume, please see www.matrixmediation.com.