

Young Lawyer Membership Application

The ADR Section is proud to sponsor the membership fee for 50 young lawyers (practicing five years or fewer) who commit to participate in one or more of the section’s committees. To join and participate, please complete the application, mark your committees of interest, and submit this form to The Florida Bar through one of the options below.

The ADR Section offers networking opportunities with litigators, mediators, and arbitrators; CLE on how to effectively represent clients in mediation; technology CLE; opportunities to publish articles; leadership through committee service; a Mentoring Academy for Attorney-Mediators; an Arbitration Advocacy Institute; free monthly forums for mediators and arbitrators; mediation mixers; and more. Join us today and build your statewide network of mediation referral sources and friends.
